

Attempted Robbery at Winona National Bank

Oct 14, 2018

Late last night, Oct. 13, there was an attempted robbery on the Winona National Bank. Currently there are no leads in the case, and the investigation is in its early stage.

Authorities are hoping that the bank's cameras might have picked up any clues that could push the case forward.

Subscribe to Breaking News

Email Address	SIGN UP!
---------------	-----------------

* I understand and agree that registration on or use of this site constitutes agreement to its user agreement and privacy policy.

---

Kilmer is a recent graduate from Winona State University where he got his BA in mass communication: journalism. Kilmer lives in Winona with his partner Abby and their golden retriever Duke.

Investigation Continues on Winona National Bank Attempted Robbery

Oct 17, 2018

The Winona National Bank attempted robbery story continues to unfold as the banks camera footage was released by police this morning. At 12:46 am with two suspects trying to enter the bank through the front doors. The pair of suspects with multiple failed attempts to try to enter the bank by ramming the door with the end of their guns to wedge the door open. The weapons that the two suspects were holding was the model 1928. In which the alarms were set off at 12:50 am with footage of the two running out of the frame of the Camera heading down towards the riverside. You can see the suspects run off holding hands. The police chief Paul Bostrack gave a statement just moments ago,

“We’ve been able to recover some information for possible suspects from Winona National Bank’s camera footage. There looks to be two suspects. The first, a caucasian male in his mid to late 20’s, with dark hair and a thin mustache. The next is a young woman, looks to be in early early 20’s, around 5’5 with auburn hair. The second suspects are dressed in 1920’s attire. If you have any information or spot the pair please contact the local Winona Police Department immediately.”

Subscribe to Breaking News

SIGN UP!

* I understand and agree that registration on or use of this site constitutes agreement to its user agreement and privacy policy.

Kilmer is a recent graduate from Winona State University where he got his BA in mass communication: journalism. Kilmer lives in Winona with his partner Abby and their golden retriever Duke.

Suspects Brought into Custody for Winona National Bank Attempted Robbery

Oct 26, 2018

Two suspects were brought in for questioning for the attempted robbery of the Winona National Bank a couple weeks back on Oct 13. Charles Wallace, 25, and Tia Montgomery, 21. Police were notified after the two were seen drinking at the local bar Market Street Tap in downtown Winona. No charges have been brought up against the pair.

Subscribe to Breaking News

SIGN UP!

* I understand and agree that registration on or use of this site constitutes agreement to its user agreement and privacy policy.

---

Kilmer is a recent graduate from Winona State University where he got his BA in mass communication: journalism. Kilmer lives in Winona with his partner Abby and their golden retriever Duke.

Case No: 00456

Date:10/13/18

Reporting Officer: Bill Smith

Prepared By: Jillian Simon

Incident:

an attempted armed robbery occurred at Winona National bank

---

Detail of Event:

On Saturday, October 13, 2018, an attempted armed robbery occurred at Winona National bank at 12:46 am with two suspects trying to enter the bank through the front doors. The pair of suspects with multiple failed attempts to try to enter the bank by ramming the door with the end of their guns to wedge the door open. The weapons that the two suspects were holding was the model 1928 Thompson gun. In which the alarms were set off at 12:50 am with footage of the two running out of the frame of the Camera heading down towards the riverside. Police arrived on the scene at 12:53 am to only find dent marks on the front door of the bank from the attempt of forces entire. The pair is to be identified as a young white male around the height of 6 ft and wearing a full tan suit with a tan hat, His partner is also a young African American woman around the height of 5'7 wearing a red dress. Police do not know the whereabouts of the two suspects and are warning citizens that they are armed and dangerous. If you have any information on the two suspects please call the local police department.

Actions Taken:

Police will not rest till the pair is caught and brought into for questioning. Police are also advising people to be aware that the two are still on the run, armed and to have caution when walking downtown at night this week. The police department is also stepping up on it patrols of the surrounding area to see if they can increase the chance of catching the pair of suspects.